

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: ADAM HOWARD APPOINTED TO FARM CREDIT MID-AMERICA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

May 5, 2025

Farm Credit Mid-America's Board of Directors has appointed Adam Howard to fill a vacant seat on the Board, following the departure of former director Brandon Robbins. Robbins was required to step down earlier this year upon his election to the AgriBank Board of Directors. Howard will serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Howard brings a strong combination of financial expertise and agricultural experience to the Board of Directors. He is a Certified Public Accountant and currently serves as a Senior Audit Manager with Carr Riggs & Ingram, LLC, where he advises financial institutions in the Southeast. In addition to his professional background, Howard also operates a hay production business in Lancing, Tennessee.

Howard holds a Master of Business Administration and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Tennessee Technological University. He is a member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Tennessee Society of Certified Public Accountants (TSCPA).
